BABY CAMP MUSTERED

NEW ORGANIZATION OF SPANISH WAR VETERANS.

The old National Fenwick Armory, located at No. 913 E street northwest, which is now being occupied as a private residence, was the scene last night of the mustering in of forty or more veterans of the Spanish, China and Philippine campaigns as members of the Department of the District of Columbia, United Spanish War Veterans. Department Commander J. Walter Mitchell and the members of his staff in regulation uniform—blue and gray—were present as guests of the new camp. They were met by a committee consisting of William A. Hickey, Sergt. Mat Maloney and Corporal Ed. Keegan, and escorted into the parlor, where they were greeted by Commander J. J. Gordon and the members of the new camp, and for over an hour the festivities of an informal campfire were indulged in.

At 9 o'clock, Capt. G. Leyburn Shorey, chief mustering officer, and his aids arrived, but before the mustering in ceremonies began, Commander Mitchell and Capt. Shorey each made short addresses in which they took occasion to compliment the officers and members of the new camp. The muster followed.

The new body is officially known as Brig. Gen. Andrew S. Burt Camp, No. 9. Department of the District of Columbia, United Spanish War Veterans, with the following officers: Commander, J. J. Gordon, late of the 3d Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry; senior vice commander, William A. Hickey, late of the 1st District of Columbia Volunteer Infantry and the 26th and 45th United States Volunteers; junior vice commander, Karl Uttley, late 16th Indiana Volunteer Infantry; officer of the day, Frank A. Howell, late 1st District of Columbia Volunteer Infantry; officer of the guard, H. B. Lein, 6th United States Cavalry; chaplain, George M. Griffith, late 8th United States Infantry; adjutant, William T. Stephens, late 6th United States Infantry; quartermaster, James Goodwin, late 9th Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry; trustee, Albert B. Scrivenor, late 1st United States Volunteer Engineers; S. C. Duffy, late musician 1st North Carolina Volunteers, and Albert B. Swift, late 10th United States Infantry, and a roster embracing Van A. Zahn, Thomas H. Rollins, Harvey B. Lein, Edward G. Burch, William Dallas, George W. Nairn, M. A. Maloney, John J. Strain, Edward Keegan, Albert B. Swift, Thomas McCavan and George Newman, with the names of Fontain, Scott, McCaul, Heolin, Kachner, Webster, Sager and O'Connor added to the charter at last night's meeting.

A general Burt was officially notified by a committee consisting of Van A. Zahn, John J. Strain and Wm. A. Hickey of the christening of the "baby" camp in his honor. He stated to the committee that he would attend the next meeting and give the members a talk.

THE HAGERSTOWN FAIR.

District Turfmen Represented in the Race Entries.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE STAR.
HAGERSTOWN, Md., October 6.—Every one of the eleven races on the program for the Hagerstown fair next week has been filled. The proceeds aggregate $6,000, a majority of them being $500 each. The entries in each race range from twenty-one down to ten, Baltimore and Washington turnmen being well represented in the list. Mrs. Charles Grimm, wife of Daniel Grimm, died today at Eskies Mills, this county, from paralysis, aged seventy-nine years. Besides her husband she is survived by two sons and a daughter, and one of the sons being Frederick Grimm, Baltimore. There was a big stir on the Hagerstown market today when Inspector Zeigler connected a large quantity of short-weight butter. Twenty-five pounds were taken from one dealer and smaller quantities from a dozen other dealers, some of the prints being as much as two ounces short. Prosecutions will follow.

Ambrose D. McCordell, the oldest boatman on police of service on the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, died today at his home at Williamsport, this county, aged seventy-one years. He operated boats on the canal practically all of his life. His death was due to heart failure. His widow and four sons survive. Mr. McCordell was a brother of George W. McCordell, publisher of the Williamsport Leader, and of Thomas F. McCordell, a newspaper man of Cumberland, Md.

Two trolley cars came together in a head-on collision Friday night and several persons were injured. Nathaniel Phillips, mortician of one of the cars, lost both feet. The accident happened about three miles from Trenton, N. J., and five of the more seriously injured were taken to a hospital.

ASK FOR JUSTICE

NEGRO BISHOP MAKES AN APPEAL FOR HIS FELLOWS.

NEW YORK, October 6.—Bishop A. Walters, president of the national Afro-American council, today issued a call to the churches for colored people throughout the country appointing Sunday, October 7, a day of prayer. In his call the bishop declared:

"In these days, when so many men of power and influence, aided by a prejudicial press, are using their office of trust and honor to degrade and destroy ten million American citizens, and the greater majority of sixty million people look on in silence, it is time for the million thus oppressed to rise in their own defense."

Colored citizens are asked to pray "that justice be done to all the people in all the states; that the golden rule be not revoked; that the colored race be made exponents of righteousness, industry, intelligence, honesty and integrity, and insist upon the same rights vouchsafed to citizens of like character of any race and color; that the country may rid itself of race prejudice; the American heart disease—and that the famous discriminating laws and court records containing entries of unfair decisions of judges and juries be burned, and the nefarious convict lease system will cease its operation; that justice will not be denied to the colored people; that the colored people be made exponents of righteousness, industry, intelligence, honesty and integrity, and insist upon the same rights vouchsafed to citizens of like character of any race and color; that the country may rid itself of race prejudice; the American heart disease—and that the famous discriminating laws and court records containing entries of unfair decisions of judges and juries be burned, and the nefarious convict lease system will cease its operation;
